

NATIONAL CAREERS WEEK

06-11 MARCH 2023 | TIMETABLE

MON 06	TUE 07	WED 08	THU 09	FRI 10
8.40-9.10am LIVE: Careers in Conservation Delve into the world of careers in conservation with the Marine Conservation Society. Hear from Katie who will talk about her unusual route into the conservation world, how she gained experience working with some of the most endangered species on the planet, and the variety of interesting and rewarding roles available within the organisation. 1pm PRE-RECORDED: A Career in Health and Social Care Learn about the different courses on offer at Canterbury Christ Church University.	8.40-9.10am LIVE: A Career within Science and Engineering - Age is just a number when it comes to studying! Hear from STEM Ambassador Darren, an Electronic Engineering Apprentice, who waited 13 years to make his career decision. Darren will explain about his journey in taking a different route into further education. He will talk about the benefits he has gained in a variety of real-world experiences he brought to his apprenticeship at the Science and Technology Facilities Council, and furthermore how he is looking forward to this bright new future! 1pm Pre-recorded: Careers and Opportunities in Land Surveying Gain insight into a career as a Land Surveyor.	8.40-9.10am LIVE: Career Paths within the Automotive/Motorsport Industry STEM Ambassador Lewis, an Associate Computer Aided Engineer (CAE) at McLaren Applied, will explain how you can enter the thrilling automotive/ motorsport industry – and get involved with Formula 1 teams. He will provide an overview of the numerous rewards of working in the field, as well as explaining about his personal journey into this exhilarating industry, and the various career routes that you can take. 11am Pre-recorded: A Career as a Flight Instructor Meet Dan, a flight instructor for a company called FTA Global. 1pm Pre-recorded: A Career as Manager in Software Implementing Meet Deniz who is the manager at Alight Solutions.	8.40-9.10am LIVE: Apprenticeships and Routes to a Career in Construction Hear from STEM Ambassador Megan, Project Assistant (Consultancy) at Mace about her career path into the construction industry via an apprenticeship route. Hear advice on what you should include in the application process and what qualities and qualifications you will need to do a job like hers! She will also give you an insight into other construction career routes available at her organisation such as Under Graduate Programmes and Graduate Development Programmes and how you can apply. 1pm Pre-recorded: A look into a Curator's World Meet Mandeep who is a curator and a digitiser.	8.40-9.10am LIVE: Discover a Career in Fusion Energy The team at Tokamak Energy will explain about careers within a rapidly growing commercial fusion energy industry which aims to demonstrate grid-ready, clean, safe and limitless power for the early 2030s. You will hear how they are recreating the power of the sun and stars to generate clean energy for homes and businesses and support the global journey towards net zero. The team will explain about the career paths they have taken, as well as what their day-to-day work is like in Quality and Project Management. 1pm-2pm LIVE: Being the Best Version of You - A Guide to Putting Your Best Foot Forward A motivational careers talk from STEM Ambassador Joe, encouraging and empowering young people to have aspirations and dreams for their future career. Includes guidance on producing a plan of action for the steps needed to achieve their goal.

Live sessions will take place on Microsoft Teams Live, which complies with safeguarding policies (attendees will not have access to webcams or microphones and the chat function will be moderated).